

Trade Adjustment Assistance for Affected Workers

DID YOUR COMPANY CLOSE OR MOVE OVERSEAS???

File Federal Trade Petition with US Department of Labor (DOL)

Who Can File???

- Group of 3 or more affected workers
- Official of the certified/recognized union or other representative
- Official of the employer/firm
- One-Stop operators/partners
- State Dislocated Worker Unit (includes Trade Programs Unit)

Approved

Denied

If Petition is Certified, Trade Unit will send a Letter of Potential Trade Eligibility to the Trade Affected Workers

NOT ELIGIBLE FOR TRADE BENEFITS.
Visit Local American Job Center for Other Programs Offer to Laid Off Workers

American Job Center

Complete Application to Participate in the Trade Adjustment Assistance Program
"Form 1666"

Affected Worker should visit the nearest Career Center to apply for Trade benefits

Approved

Denied

NOT ELIGIBLE FOR TRADE BENEFITS

Possible Trade Benefits Include:

- Employment Counseling
- Vocational Testing
- Job Placement / Supportive Services
- Paid Retraining Programs
- Job Search Allowances Relocation
- Trade Readjustment Allowance
- Reemployment/Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

Please visit our website for more information
www.mass.gov/dcs/trade